COIN TO ELECT MR. TAFT

COMMITTEE HAD ABOUT $1,500,000 TO EXPEND AT RECENT ELECTION.

THRICE AMOUNT OF BRYAN FUND

The Biggest Bunch Went to New York, Though Ohio, Maryland, Indiana and West Virginia Got Theirs.

New York, Nov. 14.—If the amount suggested informally a day or two ago by National Chairman Mack represents the actual amount contributed to and expended by the democratic national committee in the campaign recently ended—about $500,000—then the cost of the republican campaign was about three times as much, for the forthcoming statement of George Sheldon, treasurer of the republican national committee, will show that the sum subscribed to and disbursed by that organization approximated a million and a half.

This is not the exact amount of the contributions received at the republican headquarters in New York and Chicago, but it is close enough to indicate what it cost to keep the republican machinery in good working order during the campaign.

This is not quite as much as was expended in 1904 by the republican committee, nor by the democratic national committee the same year.

As was stated in dispatches in the fall of 1905 the amount collected by Cornelius N. Bliss, the republican treasurer, was nearly $1,900,000.

The exact amount was about $25,000 less, and at the close of the campaign there was a balance of $100,000, which enabled the committee to maintain headquarters for the four years ensuing, and to make a small beginning last summer.

The accuracy of the figures showing the cost of the Roosevelt campaign was vouched for by the officers of the republican committee, but the democratic committee never gave any indication of the amount it expended four years ago.

Still, from authentic sources it was ascertained at the time that the sum disbursed for Judge Parker was practically the same as that which was at the disposal of the republicans.

Ridder's Report is Complete. This year, however, the democrats will make public what they insist are the actual contributions and expenditures in behalf of Mr. Bryan.

Treasurer Ridder is now engaged in preparing his statement, and it will show that the amount received and expended approximated $500,000.

There has been a suspicion that the democrats received funds from sources which will not be disclosed, but up to this time no evidence has been produced proving that there is reasonable ground for it.

Between 12,000 and 13,000 individuals subscribed to the republican fund, and the amounts ranged from less than a dollar to a sum equaling the annual salary of the president of the United States.

The first subscription of the latter size came from William Nelson Cromwell, the New York lawyer who acted as the agent of the Panama Canal company in the transfer of its property to the United States early in the present decade. Cromwell gave his check for $50,000 and his subscription created considerable comment.

It was rumored recently that Treasurer Sheldon, acting upon an intimation from Washington or Cincinnati, returned the major portion of Cromwell's contribution, but Chairman Hitchcock said he had heard nothing about it.

Sheldon's statement will show a contribution of $50,000 from Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati. This, however, does not represent anything like the entire outlay of the brother of the president-elect, for, as has been explained before, Editor Taft went down into his pocket for other expenses incident to the campaign, not to mention what he spent in the pre-convention contest.

Ohio Sent Her Portion. Aside from his subscription, between $80,000 and $100,000 was raised in Ohio. Of this Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, son of the late Senator M. A. Hanna, gave $5,000, which he sent to Sheldon through Elmer E. Dwyer, secretary of the advisory committee.

Most of the balance was raised by former Governor Myron T. Herrick, who represented the finance committee in the Buckeye state, and sent nearly $75,000 to New York during the last four or five weeks of the campaign.

New York was the largest contributor among the states, several hundred thousand dollars having been raised here. If the statement of Treasurer Sheldon, who will file it with the secretary of state at Albany, some time next week, shows to what extent the various committees of the doubtful states were assisted at critical periods of the campaign, it will be seen that something like a quarter of a million dollars was turned over by the national committee to the Empire state committee.

The national committee this year followed the custom in vogue for

A VERDICT FOR $17,500

POLICE COMMISSIONER GALLAGHER GOT IT AGAINST A NEWSPAPER.

KANSAS CITY JOURNAL IS VICTIM

Printed a Story That Was Shown to Be Untrue—The Case Was Tried at Liberty, Clay County, the Past Week.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 14.—The Independent, George Creel's weekly publication, today printed the following:

Police Commissioner A. E. Gallagher's suit for slander against the Kansas City Journal was tried in Liberty Monday and Tuesday, and it took a Clay county jury very few minutes to return a verdict in his favor for $17,500.

Owing to an agreement among the dailies not to mention libel suits, save when the verdict was in favor of the paper, no publicity was given Mr. Gallagher's complete vindication, and thus he has been cheated of the very thing for which he brought his action.

The suit grew out of the police department investigation that resulted in the summary dismissal of Chief Hayes. Commissioner Rozelle, by reason of his metropolitan affiliations was fighting hard for Hayes' retention. Mayor Beardsley allowed political considerations to tie his hands and the whole burden of the inquiry fell upon Commissioner Gallagher. He refused to be deterred by "pull" or threat, and piled up proof after proof of incompetency and corruption.

During the last of several stormy sessions, Chief Hayes, maddened by the story of a witness, sprang forward and declared that graft, if there had been graft, was all "higher up," pointing his finger at Commissioner Gallagher. Forced to an explanation, he asserted that Burns Gallagher, the commissioner's young son, was around soliciting insurance business in saloons, while his father pulled the commission.

The Journal, notwithstanding that Commissioner Gallagher gave Hayes the lie in his teeth, printed the accusation next morning as a fact, and in order to make the story read better, added bawdy houses to the saloons that young Gallagher was charged with blackmailing.

METCALF QUILTS THE NAVY

Illness Caused the Resignation of the Cabinet Member.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Victor H. Metcalf, secretary of the navy, has tendered his resignation to the president, to take effect Dec. 1, on account of ill health.

The assistant secretary of the navy, Truman Newberry, will be named as Mr. Metcalf's successor.

Fined, and Paid Board Bill.

Sydney Harris, arrested at Nevada on the charge of beating Mrs. George Homan out of a board bill, was returned here, and Saturday Justice Rickman fined him $1 and costs, and in the meantime the defendant liquidated the board bill.

Entertained Sans Gene Club.

Mrs. John Menefee, jr., entertained the Sans Gene club Friday. The amusement was "500," Mrs. W. E. Bard winning the club prize, a cut glass compote, while the special prize, a pitcher, went to Mrs. W. B. Moody, of St. Louis.

IS FREED FROM A BRUTE

YOUNG ENGLISH GIRL DIVORCES THE SON OF THE FAMOUS MELBA.

THE PITIFUL TALE OF A CHILD WIFE

Spoiled Youth Beat Her Within Two Months After Their Marriage—Was Also Untrue—Mother Thinks Him Innocent.

London, Nov. 14.—George Nesbit Armstrong, Mme. Melba's son, was divorced today by his wife, formerly Ruby Otway, after twenty months of unhappy union. A curious circumstance is that anyone reading the reports of the suit in this evening's London papers would never be able to identify the respondent as the son of the famous prima donna.

Ruby Armstrong, not yet 20, told a pitiful story of violence and infidelity on the part of her husband. She said he began to quarrel with her and ill use her within two months after their marriage. They went to Texas and there he beat her and locked her in her room. Later they went to Australia, where her unhappiness became intensified.

On their return to London early this year Armstrong was thrashed by an irate husband, a Mr. Hoffman, at the Hotel Metropole. Hoffman also demanded $35,000.

Armstrong confessed to his wife and she immediately began suit. He put in no defense.

Mme. Melba arrived in London yesterday from Cardiff, Wales, and her son is with her. She regards him as an injured innocent.

Armstrong lived with his father, a sheep man in Oregon, until three years ago, when Mme. Melba, after years of apparent neglect, took him to London and introduced him to the world of fashion. There he met Miss Ruby Otway, 18 years old and pretty, the daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Jocelyn Otway, widely known in London as a man of wealth. Their courtship was brief. After their marriage they came to America with Mme. Melba.

Was Accidentally Shot.

Hal Horton, the Ohio street tenor artist, who, with Joe Bouldin, returned Friday from a hunting visit on the S. W. & S. W. line, was accidentally shot by his partner while on the hunt, and as a result is wearing a bandage on his throat.

OPEN RETURNS MONDAY

GOVERNOR J. W. FOLK FIXES THE TIME FOR OFFICIAL REVIEW OF VOTES.

THAT WAS CAST ON NOVEMBER 3

Painter Says He Has Been Elected Lieutenant Governor by Twelve Votes, and This Out of a Total of 700,000 Ballots.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 14.—The official returns from the Missouri election will not be opened until Monday morning. This was the joint announcement of Governor Folk and Secretary of State Swange last evening.

The candidates whose chances of holding state offices for the next four years depend upon these figures were accordingly notified that their agencies would be prolonged.

All the returns, save those from Jackson county, including Kansas City, were in Thursday night. The latter returns are not expected before Sunday, so the public must expect to pass two more days at least before they know definitely who has been elected lieutenant governor of Missouri, and for the removal of all doubt concerning some of the other offices.

W. R. Painter spent the day here Friday. According to figures he has gathered, he believes that he was elected lieutenant governor by 12 votes. This is hair-splitting on a total vote that will come near to 700,000.

The political friends of State Treasurer Gmelch, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, claim that he is elected, but they are not furnishing any figures. Gmelch leads by seven, according to returns gathered by the St. Louis Republic.

FOUND HIM DEAD IN BED

Mr. William E. Brennecke Had Died of Heart Disease.

William E. Brennecke, 26 years old, was found dead in bed at the home of his brother, George Brennecke, 1017 East Tenth street, by his sister, Miss Clara, at 6 o'clock Saturday morning. Death had resulted from heart trouble.

Mr. Brennecke arose early Saturday morning and he was not feeling well, he was advised to remain in bed, which he did. Later, when the sister went to arouse him for breakfast, she discovered him dead.

He was a member of Good Will chapel and held membership in the Modern Woodmen of America. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Clara Brennecke, four miles southeast of Sedalia; two brothers, George and Henry, and three sisters, Misses Bertha, Ida and Clara Brennecke.

Operated On at Maywood. James Embrey, of Omaha, Neb., was operated upon by Dr. E. A. Wood at Maywood hospital Saturday afternoon for necrosis of the right foot. He was reported resting nicely last night.

HE OCCUPIES AN UNIQUE POSITION

First Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate Defeated in Forty Years—Strife Within the Party Cause of Disaster.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 14.—Addressing the members of the Young Men's Democratic club of this city at their regular weekly luncheon today, W. S. Cowherd, late candidate for governor, for the first time since the election spoke of his defeat.

He prefaced his remarks by saying: "I shall not attempt to make a good speech at the expense of my party organization. I am not the man and this is not the place, for things to be said which might be said."

Mr. Cowherd admitted that he occupied the unique position of being the first democratic candidate for governor of Missouri defeated in forty years. "But," he said, "we can profit by my unpopularity. If the democratic party is to return to power, and if it is to remain in power, it must learn a lesson from the defeat suffered early in the present month."

"I firmly believe that Missouri is 30,000 democratic, but it is not the rock-ribbed democratic stronghold it once was."

"It is not so preponderously democratic that it can stand a civil war within its own ranks. We found the opposition organized and united. We found ourselves unorganized and divided. We must learn that our own fighting must be ended with the primary. We cannot survive a prolonged fight which goes on into the general campaign."

"We learn that the republican press and the independent press are still at work breaking down the democratic party. For twenty years it has been so engaged. We may as well learn that lesson and prepare to offset their work. We must organize at once if we would win next time."

Clark lost his position with the railway when he was arrested some months ago. The most that was charged against him was that he had been careless, and that he did not scrutinize Nistes' requests properly. Nistes had supplied men for the road for many years and was an established agent.

The Greek was prepared to show that he had no means, and Clark, so his attorney said in open court, had his bank book to show his limited wealth was that only saved out of his pay, and that his home had a mortgage on it which would scarcely be there if he had been dealing in passes, as the government charged him.

The Standard's Story is to Be Told by Its Founder.

New York, Nov. 14.—John D. Rockefeller is expected to go on the witness stand when the hearing in the government's suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company is resumed next week and tell the story of that gigantic corporation.

It is said that Mr. Rockefeller will be a willing witness and that for some time he has been desirous of clearing up certain matters concerning the company.

At the office of the Standard Oil company it was announced that the company will subpoena Mr. Rockefeller, John D. Archbold, vice president, and J. A. Moffett, a director of the Standard Oil company, as witnesses for the company.

It is expected that Mr. Archbold and Mr. Moffett will follow Mr. Rockefeller on the witness stand.

GRAND DUKE ALEXIS DEAD

Passed Away in Paris on Saturday of Pneumonia.

Paris, Nov. 14.—Grand Duke Alexis, of Russia, uncle of Emperor Nicholas, died in this city today of pneumonia. The grand duke has lived in Paris almost continuously since his retirement from the position of Russian minister of marine.

Saturday Rev. S. S. Martin received a letter from Dr. E. D. Holbert, who with his wife was called to Portland, Ark., by the illness of Mrs. Holbert's brother, Richard St. John, stating that they will return home Tuesday.

Mr. St. John was about 40 years old and was engaged in the lumber business. He was examining a new revolver, which accidentally discharged, killing him almost instantly.

CARMACK WAS ELOQUENT.

Senator Carmack, of Tennessee, who was assassinated last Monday, was recognized as one of the most eloquent men in congress during his Washington career. He was brilliant, caustic and epigrammatic, and in debate was the peer and counterpart of the brilliant John J. Ingalls, of Kansas. When Carmack's seat in the house was contested by Josiah Patterson during the second session of the fifty-fifth congress, Carmack delivered a speech which was reprinted throughout the country. It was one of the few speeches to which the late Thomas B. Reed listened with show of enjoyment. Here is the peroration:

"I speak, sir, for my native state, my native south. It is a land that has known sorrows; a land that has broken the ashen crust and moistened it with her tears; a land scarred and riven with the plowshare of war and billowed with the graves of her dead; but a land of legend, a land of song, a land of hallowed and heroic memories. To that land every drop of my blood, every fiber of my being, every pulsation of my heart is concentrated forever. I was born of her womb, I was nurtured at her breast, and when my last hour shall come I pray God that I may be pillowed upon her bosom and rocked to sleep within her tender and encircling arms."

The good chairmanships with which Speaker Cannon is expected to overcome all opposition to him will be at the disposal of any man who may be elected speaker. If Mr. Cannon shall be elected again his friends will get the prizes. But, then, if Mr. Fowler or any other member should be elected speaker it would be his friends who would get the prizes, which are distributed about Christmas. Those important committee assignments are capable of being just as useful to other aspirants for the chair as they are to Mr. Cannon.

All husbands will be reminded at frequent intervals for the next four years that it was Mrs. Taft who persuaded her husband to give up his ambition for the supreme court and go after the presidency. This election to be followed presently by Barrie's play, "What every Woman Ought to Know," should keep men in a very abject attitude for a considerable period.

Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, looks like a rising sun. A democrat who can carry his state three times in succession in the face of a normal republican majority of 100,000 is marked for a man of destiny. Perhaps he will be the Moses that will lead the agricultural constituencies of the northwest out of the wilderness of the protectionistic and trust-breeding legislation in which they have been blindly wandering for years. In any event, Governor Johnson is well worth keeping an eye on.

It would seem a gratuitous superelevation for the president to jump in to print again with a defense of Mr. Taft's religion. As Mr. Roosevelt says this is a matter between Mr. Taft and "his Maker," but Theodore, who has never yet left any matter to deity, attempted to settle the question with a valedictory essay on conscience. The people have elected Mr. Taft and it might reasonably be supposed that he would be trusted to look out for himself from now on. Methinks the gentleman doth preach too much.

It is already given out by Treasurer Sheldon that the list of contributors to the Taft campaign fund will contain so many names that no newspaper would want to handle it in a single edition. This is a doubly dispassionate announcement, calculated to daunt both printer and reader.

In Kansas if a hotel has buckwheat cakes and maple syrup on the bill of fare, the syrup must be maple, or else there is trouble for the proprietor. Vermont will have a hard time supplying the country with real maple sugar when all the states have pure food laws of their own.

A candidate went to a fashionable home just before the election soliciting votes, and looked about for a baby to kiss as a means of engravating himself into the favor of the house hold. The mistress divined his purpose and called to the maid to shut Fido up at once.

For the benefit of the playsmith, it might be suggested that where two years are supposed to pass between acts in a household drama, the servant should be changed, just to make it more realistic.

South Dakota has voted away $600,000 of her annual income and the glory of her divorce courts. Where is the state now that will come to the rescue of the slightly married and reap the reward of gratitude and a full treasury?

It is all officially arranged that Mr. Roosevelt will become an editor. How long he will remain satisfied to be heard from but once a month remains to be seen. A correspondence school would seem better suited to his tastes.

A St. Louis woman wants a divorce because her husband has given her but one hat and one dress in twenty-five years. There is no justice in the courts if she does not win a suit this time.

Not less than 100 completed cabinets have been offered to Mr. Taft, but the newspapers will probably learn that Mr. Taft is something of a cabinet maker himself.

Many an author who started out by thinking he would write only for posterity is glad to compromise, by writing for prosperity after the first few months.

It appears that the German emperor, the chancellor and the public are all learning some things about each other that weren't known before.

Even the hens are responding to the effect of the election. Eggs are selling for 35 cents a dozen as a sign of the prosperous times ahead.

Mr. Belmont described the street near Tottenham Court Road, where second-hand clothes are sold.
"A discussion I overheard in this street," he said, "will give you some idea of the prices that prevail."
"I s'y," said a young man, "wo price these 'ere?"
"And he held up before the dealer a pair of plaid trousers."
"I can let you have 'em, my son for sixpence," the dealer answered.
"The other threw the trousers back into the barrow."
"Garn!" he said; "I don't want 'em for Sundays. I want 'em to work in."

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 14, 1908.
Editor Democrat-Sentinel.

I am informed that Mr. C. C. Kelly, the leading counsel defending the negro rapist, Lloyd Cannon, is making a statement and creating the impression that he (Mr. Kelly), effected an agreement with the state's attorney, Mr. H. D. Dow, and leading counsel, Mr. J. T. Montgomery, and assisting counsel, Mr. W. D. Steele, wherein the negro secured a sentence imposed of sixteen years in the penitentiary.

This statement, if made, is without foundation or fact, as the three state's attorneys first, last and all the time opposed any compromise whatever less than forty years and never did at any time want this negro to plead guilty. They were anxious and desirous for continuance and completion of the trial.

The public should understand; and if any blame attaches in this matter of final outcome it should rest solely where it belongs. One fact stands out beyond contradiction that the state's attorney and assistants had nothing to do with the ridiculous light sentence imposed on this fiend in human shape. Very respectfully, an ideal. About ten years ago a gentleman of some means and liberal inclination conceived the idea of educating a double quartette of girls for high-class concert work. With ample means and not impatient of time, he selected from the wide circle of his acquaintance eight girls of superior character and musical ability special preparation, the eight original girls appeared in concert in an eastern city and their success was instantaneous and eminently justified the time, expense and work required to perfect their musical education, make solo artists of each individual and make them a unit in their ensemble work.
F. MERRIWETHER.

MORE NEW STUDENTS

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE AGAIN INCREASES ENROLLMENT.

BUT THERE'S STILL ROOM FOR MORE

Prof. Robbins Gives His Personal Attention to Classes and Has an Able Corps of Assistants.

Many new students have entered the past week, and quite a large number will enter Monday.

Pupils who attended Hill's Business college before its doors were closed find a cordial welcome in Central Business college and need not lose any time. They may begin their work right where they left off when Hill's Business college closed.

A large class in Gregg Light Line has enrolled in Central Business college and the pupils are doing good work. Those who have started in this system or those who wish to take it up will have the very best advantages to be had in the United States in Central Business college. All blank books and everything used in the other institution may be used on entering this school.

A large number of pupils have been placed in good positions the past week, several in St. Louis, several in Kansas City and several in Sedalia, salaries ranging from $40 to $65 per month.

We have made room now for about thirty more pupils, whom we expect to enter next week. Don't be afraid

Thomas W. Lawson, at a dinner in Boston, talked about success. "Success in finance," he said, "is due in great measure to prompt action. The doubting, hesitating, Hamlet type of man had best keep out of finance. He is sure to be swamped. The street has no use for him."

"Such a man always makes me think of my boyhood friend, Grimes. Grimes was a falterer, a doubter, a Hamlet of the worst type."

"One night I dropped in on him, and found him in a brown study over a white vest."

"Hello, Grimes," said I. "What's the matter?"

"This vest," said he. "It's too dirty to wear, and not dirty enough to send to the wash. I don't know what to do about it."

NO LOSS OF INTEREST

REVIVAL AT BROADWAY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH GROWING IN FERVOR.

VERY STRONG SERMON LAST NIGHT

Evangelist Hamilton Spoke on "The Watchman"—Many Thoughts of Helpful Nature Brought Out Singing Great Feature.

The revival at the Broadway Presbyterian church was a continuation of intense interest, and a great audience was present to sing and to hang on every word that was uttered last night.

Rev. Hamilton was in his usual good voice and thought, and gave a searching talk that reached every heart present, his subject being "The Watchman."

The text was, "So thou, O Son of Man, I have set thee a watchman." At the very first of his talk he began to drive home the truth. "Ye are the salt of the earth," and hence the responsibility rests upon us to do what we can to help conditions around us.

"I am the vine, ye are the branches." Therefore the responsibility rests upon us to bear fruit; that is to give to those around us the help they need, and to give them the Savior and helper that he may know and enjoy.

God is calling for watchmen. Every where the call comes for men to stand as beacon lights on the mountain top and to be a witness for better and higher things.

The first thought of the text was, "Who are the watchmen?" The first one that enters our mind is that the preachers are watchmen. Yes, they are watchmen. We have a right to demand of them that they be as guide posts for our walk and conversation. They should stand for all that is right and true.

Then the church officials are watchmen, also. They hold a position of trust, and the church needs their robust character to guide them.

Also every member of church is a watchman. The world looks upon them and studies their every action. They are watched when they little expect it, and are criticized by the on-looker. It thrusts the responsibility upon each church member to stand firm. Christ says, "Ye are My witnesses." Then we can not rid ourselves of the burden of trust resting upon our shoulders. We dare not do it. The time is past when we can shift the responsibility upon the preachers. God expects us to be faithful in soul winning. The man in the baseball team tries to get others lined up in sympathy with his side. He desires to get others to believe in his side. The student in college is always anxious to get someone else to join the ranks of his school. And why should not the Christian be even more anxious than they to get others to believe in and to know that for which they stand.

The watchman has a responsibility that he dare not neglect, or else some soul will go down and perish. Some of us have missed our chance in saving a soul and turning a life as a Sunday school teacher and in other positions of trust.

We laud a man who saves one from a physical death, but he should laud higher a man who saves a soul from spiritual death.

Then the watchman has a reward. Let him know who saves another that he has saved a soul from death and has hid a multitude of sins.

Then we who save another have their own words of commendation, "I thank you that you showed me to the Lamb of God."

"I have set you a watchman, O house of Israel." Be thou faithful unto it."

The music is a grand feature of the meetings, and last night was no exception. The large chorus sang heartily, and Mr. Henderson, the singer, was full of inspiration as he swayed chorus and audience.

His song, "Just to Trust in the Lord," was one of his best, and reached all hearts.

Today will be a great day for the church. If you want to be sure of a seat, come early, is the warning. The morning subject will be, "Christ Our Example." The evangelist will talk in the evening on "Home, and How to Make It Happy."

The young peoples service will also be enthusiastic. All young people are urged to come and join in the service.

If you can sing, your place is in the choir.

Come out today and get the inspiration and help of today's services.

There was a full house on Friday night, and a powerful sermon on "Hindrances to Revivals" was given by Rev. Hamilton.

Mr. Henderson sang then, "He Lifteth Me," which was by far one of his

The Stop.

J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, member of the waterways and forestry preservation commission, was describing, on his return from Europe, a wretched railroad in Brittany.

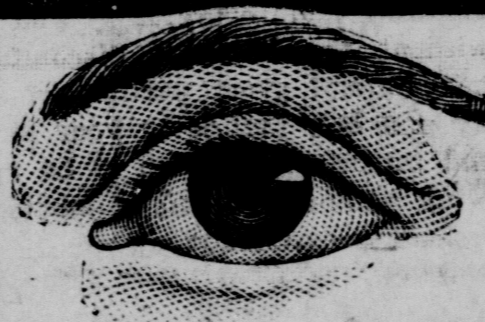

"I never imagined such slow trains existed," said Mr. Moore. "They are certainly tedious to ride on. They bore you dreadfully."

"All sorts of stories—very likely ones, too—are told about the Breton trains. Thus it is said that one day, when an express pulled up in the middle of a dreary field of gray rocks, a passenger put his head out of the window and shouted angrily to the conductor:

"Well, what have you stopped this time for?"

"Engineer's dropped his cigarette, sir," was the reply.

NOTES OF THE LIBRARY

BEEN PARTICULARLY FORTUNATE IN THE MATTER OF DONATIONS.

STUDY OF ESPERANTO MADE EASY

Miss Jessie Blair Has Kindly Allowed the Library the Use of One of Her Collections of Geological Specimens.

The library has been particularly fortunate in receiving gifts lately. Miss Jessie Blair has kindly allowed the library to have the use of one of her interesting collections of geological specimens. These specimens are in a tall three-cornered cabinet, which is in the main hall of the second floor of the library. This makes the fifth cabinet there and adds very much to the beginning of a museum at the library. Mr. C. E. Baker has given about forty bound volumes of the Sedalia newspapers. Mr. Noble has given many interesting books and magazines. Mr. Shultz has given several volumes of St. Nicholas.

Sometime ago at a meeting of Sorosis a paper was read on Esperanto, the international language, which attracted considerable attention. The interest seems to be widespread throughout America, and has been much stimulated by the selection at the World's Esperanto congress, at Dresden, Germany, last summer of the United States as the country in which the next world's congress would be held, and Chautauque, N. Y., and August, 1909, as the place and time of the meeting.

In order to meet the local demand, the library has just received several Esperanto text books for self-instruction, which are now ready for distribution. As these books can be renewed at the end of two weeks for a fee period, any one who gives serious attention and careful study of the contents can easily acquire the language in that time.

There is a local Esperanto society in the city, which was organized about a year ago which has several members quite expert in reading, writing and speaking the new language, who have expressed their willingness to assist any beginner who is attempting in good faith to acquire the new language.

SEDALIA BUSINESS COLLEGE ITEMS

Sedalia Business college started its regular classes the past week, and the pupils are enthusiastic over their work. This perhaps is one of the most unique business colleges to be found in the United States.

Orders are telegraphed from the retail merchant to the wholesaler and the pupils go through the regular routine of business transactions that they would have in the best regulated retail and wholesale establishments. The work is actual business from start to finish.

Those desiring a short course in retail and wholesale bookkeeping will find Sedalia Business college just suited to their needs. A course in retail and wholesale bookkeeping can be finished in three months or a complete course in retail and wholesale bookkeeping, combined with banking, commission, etc., can be finished in six months.

At the Breakfast Table.

The young wife dipped the ladle into the porridge and smiled inquiringly at the over-night guest.

"Will you have some hot Scotch, Mr. Dash?" she asked.

Dash laughed.

"Hot Scotch? Where is it?" said he.

"Why, here, of course," said the young wife, in a perplexed tone.

"Didn't you know that oatmeal is called hot Scotch?"

"Er—!" Dash stammered, and then the young husband caught his eye, and he was silent.

"I didn't know it myself till last year," she explained. "I heard George inviting his cousin over the telephone to meet him at the office and have a hot Scotch. I didn't know what hot Scotch was till you told me, did I, George?"

George, very red, answered huskily: "No, my dear."

Laughing at her own ignorance, the lady proceeded to serve the thick, pale hot Scotch.

More Liberality.

The religious as well as the secular press appears to be adopting a more liberal tone in the matter of moral instruction in the public schools. More stress is being laid on the principle of ethical instruction in all its branches, and they seem to be yielding the contention, so long and so stubbornly maintained, that theology must be taught in its broadest sense should be an important feature of instruction none has gainsaid, and that a sound moral basis will lead to a religious life is beginning to be conceded on all sides. Given the moral basis at school, the child will develop religious belief at home in the direction of his environment and in accordance with the creed he is taught.—American Israelite.

STATE SHOW OF POULTRY

WILL BE HELD AT TRENTON, MISSOURI, DECEMBER 8 TO 12, INCLUSIVE.

PRIZES FOR THE LARGER DISPLAYS

On Wednesday Night Some of the Best Speakers in the United States Will Lecture on Practical Poultry Topics.

The poultry breeders of Pettis county are urged to attend the state show at Trenton, Mo., Dec. 8 to 12, inclusive, and exhibit their poultry. The Missouri State Poultry association now has the largest membership of any in America, and is setting the pace for all other state shows.

Missouri made a gain of $5,000,000 last year in its surplus poultry products, largely through the interest and influence created by its state association. This is an official organization of Missouri and receives a $4,000 biennial appropriation from the state.

Missourians are taking hold of thoroughbred poultry with a vengeance, and the state show affords you an opportunity to get in touch with those who are in the market for eggs or stock. The surplus products of the Missouri hen last year was nearly $45,000,000.

The state show pays in cash prizes on pens, $10 for first, $5 second, $2.50 third; and on single entries, cock, cockerel, hen and pullet, $5 for first, $3 for second and $1.50 for third. In addition to paying the largest premiums paid in America, fifty silver cups are offered at this show and other specials galore.

The show will be cooped with uniform coops, which are furnished free to every exhibitor and everything is done to make the show as attractive as possible.

Missouri now has nearly the double premium and only charges about half the entry fee charged by most of the best shows in this country.

Prizes for Largest Displays. To the Missouri breeders who are members of the state association, and who make the largest and best displays of one variety:

First prize.....$20.00 in gold
Second prize.....15.00 in gold
Third prize.....10.00 in gold
Fourth prize.....5.00 in gold

Ten dollars in gold for first prize; $5 in gold for second prize to the ladies of Missouri making the largest and best display of poultry.

Poultry Institute. On Wednesday night some of the best speakers of the United States will lecture on practical poultry topics. The annual business meeting on Thursday night. Come.

Trenton is a city of unbounded hospitality, with 10,000 inhabitants, situated in the richest agricultural portion of the state. It has three first class hotels and many smaller ones and other means of entertaining visitors. Great interest is taken in the raising of fine poultry by the breeders of the vicinity.

The leading poultry journals give write-ups of our show, and it means something and is worth something to you to win a prize at a show like this. Heimlich, Riggs, Rhodes, Thompson and Burhans will do the judging. Your stock will be given the best of care. Ribbons will be put up promptly and the premiums paid before the close of the show.

Entries will close Wednesday, Dec. 2, at midnight. Write for catalogue, and be sure to make an exhibit at the Missouri state show.

We will insure an absolutely square deal to every exhibitor.—T. E. Quisenberry, Secretary, Slater, Mo.

GOIN TO ELECT MR. TAFT

some time of attending to the collection from the large contributors in New York city and then handing over to the state committee what it needed in conducting the campaign in the state. The most the state committee did was to levy the usual assessments against the office holders.

The bulk of the money raised through the efforts of ex-Governor Herriek found its way back to Ohio, its source. This would mean that in the latter part of the campaign something like $75,000 was sent out to Ohio for the purpose of effecting a much desired improvement in the situation there.

As has been stated in previous dispatches, the understanding is that additional funds were sent to Columbus from Cincinnati for distribution in the bad spots in the state.

At least $75,000, and very likely more, was sent to Indiana for the purpose of stimulating the efforts of the local managers in arousing interest in the republican cause near the close of the campaign and in getting out the vote on election day.

The state managers asked for $150,000, but this sum was reduced at least one third by the national committee.

"Dough" for Other States. Other states which received assistance of this kind were Maryland and West Virginia, in which the situation, especially in the former, was in no sense satisfactory up to the day of election.

Some of the funds collected early in the summer were sent up to Maine for expenditure in the state campaign held in September. It will be remembered that the issue there involved the resubmission of the provision of the constitution which placed the Pine Tree state on a prohibition basis, and that the republicans were not overly confident that they would carry their state ticket through.

As it was, the republican candidate for governor had only about 8,000 majority, or something like 25 per cent of that which Judge Taft received November 3d. The sum furnished by the national committee for the Maine contest was not more than $10,000.

Treasurer Sheldon's list will contain the names of many men prominent in the business life of the country, who believed that the election of Mr. Taft would result in a termination of the commercial and industrial stagnation.

These men contributed more liberally than did the wealthy democrats who subscribed to Mr. Bryan's campaign fund. But the individual amounts in no sense equal some of the sums which were formerly contributed by large corporations before congress passed the law prohibiting such concerns from subscribing in the interests of candidates for president and vice president. Cabinet and other prominent officials of the government sent their mites to the republican treasury.

So far as Sheldon's certified list is an indication, the cost of Mr. Taft's campaign was less than any republican campaign since 1896.

In that year more than $4,000,000 was expended by the republican committee, or about the same amount that was disbursed in 1892 in behalf of President Cleveland by the democratic committee.

In 1900 the republicans raised $2,

800,000, and, as already said, this was nearly $1,000,000 more than was collected and spent in 1904.

The high water mark in presidential campaigns was reached in 1892 by the democrats, and by the republicans in 1896. Of the money collected this year nearly $250,000, came in response to letters sent out at the suggestion of Secretary Dover, who about three or four weeks before the close of the campaign mailed more than 50,000 letters to as many individuals asking for subscriptions of $50 each.

Coroner Moves His Office.

Coroner Dr. R. T. Miller Saturday moved his office from rooms over Grammar's Palace of Sweets to apartments over Slack's drug store on West Second street.

Thompson & Gentlemen. "Thompson & Gentlemen" was the way the sign above a blacksmith's door in White Plains used to read. One day it was changed to "Thompson & Brown."

"The funny thing about the whole business," said Thompson, "is that Gentlemen is really the name of my partner, but scarcely any stranger who wanted horses shod or tires mended could be made to believe it. They thought the other fellow had a name that he thought too much of to put it in a blacksmith's sign, and so substituted 'Gentleman' instead just to let folk know that he really was a gentleman. That made them mad. They were plain people with a dislike for airs, and they got down on Gentlemen and refused to patronize us. Now that he calls himself 'Brown' they say, 'Well, that swell guy has come to his senses at last, has he?' and so give us their work to do."

25,000 Voters Signed Petitions But Forgot Candidates.

Topeka, Nov. 14.—The indications are that the Hearst independence party did not get much of a start in Kansas—in fact, the returns do not show that the party was much in evidence in the campaign, in spite of the hurrah and talk previous to the election.

If the ratio keeps going at the rate it is at present the independents will have cast about 100 votes in the state election.

Commerce.

If commerce hath wrought wonders till wonders never cease, not least among them is that in virtue of which we fatten bulls with wheat that falls—the nice distinction of meum and tuum whereby misfortunes are rendered into assets—thy misfortunes into my assets.

A thousand years ago you might get it in the neck, and that would be about all—you would perhaps be the wiser, but no man would be any the richer. Now, however, the sun cannot burn up a Hindu's rice, or the hail pound a Russian's corn into the ground, without somebody's prosperity being boosted. And that is because, in spite of poets and other kickers, commerce has steadily come on.

Truth Versus Politeness.

Ethel was going to take supper with a little friend.

"Now, dear," said her mother, "when you are leaving, you must bid Marian's mamma good night, and tell her you have had a very pleasant time."

When the little girl returned, her mother asked if she had done as she told her.

"Not 'actly, mamma," was the reply. "Marian took the biggest piece of the apple and spilled lemonade on my new dress, so I couldn't say what you told me, but I told her mother good night, and I said I guessed Marian had had a very pleasant time."—Judge.

His Inspiration.

"Tell me," said the soulful lady to the hack poet, "what is it that makes you turn out your bee-outfit poems?"

The hack poet twiddled his fingers, much embarrassed.

"For instance," cooed the soulful lady, "take that delightful thing, 'Whiffs from the Ineffable'—the current number of The Art Set."

What was it exactly that caused you to write that? Oh! I do so want to know. Was it a mysterious impulse to which you yourself cannot give a name, or a perfectly definite, easily traceable something—the divine afflatus, in short—the Super-It?"

"It was neither," confessed the embarrassed hack poet; "it was a coal bill!"

HENEY IS SHOT IN COURT

BY FRISCO EX-CONVICT AND REJECTED JUROR IN ABE RUEF TRIAL.

A BULLET ENTERED RIGHT CHEEK

Would-Be Assassin Says the Prosecutor Ruined Him—Henev, on Operating Table, Says He'll Live to Prosecute, Assailant.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—The San Francisco graft bribery cases had a dramatic climax late yesterday when Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Henev, who has been in charge of the prosecution for two years, was shot in the right cheek and seriously wounded in the crowded court room by Morris Haas, a former convict.

The shooting occurred during a brief recess in the third trial of Abraham Ruef on a charge of bribery, now in the eleventh week.

The would-be assassin is a Jew and a saloon keeper, who was drawn in the jury panel in the second trial of Ruef, and who, having been temporarily passed by both sides, was exposed in a dramatic manner by Mr. Henev as a former convict and discharged from the jury.

The act of the assassin was so sudden that John Foley, the man who has acted as Henev's body guard ever since the prosecution began its work to oust the Schmitz administration and prosecuting the "high-ups," was unable to save his employer. However, he grappled with Haas, and with the assistance of Deputy Sheriff Frank Coyle, disarmed him and turned him over to the police.

Mr. Henev retained consciousness throughout the night and rested well. No alarming symptoms developed, and today his condition is said to be improved. Friends and his family are hopeful of his recovery.

The bullet lodged under the left ear and has not yet been removed. Haas, who was arrested immediately after the shooting, has a wife and four children. In a statement made to Police Captain Duke he said:

"Henev denounced me in public, which ruined my life and branded me as an ex-convict. It was an outrage. I am the wronged man. I do not care what becomes of me now. I have sacrificed myself not for my own honor, but for the honor of those who are situated like myself. By God I would not have brought my four children into the world to bear such a brand if I had known that the fact that I was an ex-convict would become known. Henev ruined me. That is why I shot him."

Haas, in the second Ruef trial, had been passed as a juror when one day in court Henev dramatically produced a photograph of him, taken at San Quentin penitentiary, taken in convict's garb and with cropped head and with his number across his breast. Haas collapsed in court, admitting he had been a convict, and was immediately discharged from the jury.

Mr. Henev said on the operating table that he would live to prosecute Haas, and District Attorney William Langdon says that even if there be other assassinations there will be no let up in the prosecution of the graft cases, no matter who is caught in the net.

Will Operate for Bullet.

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—At 10:30 today Mr. Henev's condition continues as favorable as it had been throughout the night. At that hour a consultation of all the physicians was in progress. It is expected that as soon as the doctors conclude the conference an X-ray examination will be made and surgeons will operate for the removal of the bullet.

President Sends Messages.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The president, upon learning of the attempt made upon the life of Francis J. Henev, sent telegrams to Mrs. Henev and Adolph Spreckles, expressing his "horror and detestation" of the deed.

Tailoring
"A saw is a good thing, but not to shave with." A lot of ready to wear clothing is a good thing, but not on the man. If your clothes don't fit you perfectly, they will not hold shape, and if they don't hold shape, they won't wear. That's the whole argument in a nutshell. Garments will only fit and hold their shape when they are cut, fashioned and tailored over your form. You can't buy clothing from off the counter and get value. That's common sense. Why, then, spend money for clothing not made for you, when for the same amount I will make a study of your build and then make you a suit—your suit. New and desirable wares are now ready for your inspection and your selection now will put you in the van of the army of good dressers. Prices range $25, $27.50, $30 and $35.

THE VERY BEST.

Have any of our readers seen a recent copy of the Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer? If not, it will pay to send for a copy, if for no other purpose than to note its present great worth as an educator in all things that tend to make life prosperous, and home, the happiest place on earth.

The editor by asking its readers to criticize and suggest improvements; and following advice thus obtained is enabled to produce a paper that exactly fits needs of a family and a material aid to father, mother and children in reaching that higher level in social life, where content and comfort reigns supreme.

Father obtains ample information that guides in the where, when and how to regulate and increase the income from his efforts. The mother in management of household affairs, practical economy, government of children, and other duties that makes her toil a labor of love. Children's minds and hearts are freed from thoughts of questionable amusements and frivolities of life, and encouraged to emulate all that is helpful in planning for a useful future in life.

The Grand Idea being that: "As are our Homes, so will be the Community, State and Nation."

A most desirable help, as preached by that Biblical Student Pastor Chas. T. Russell; a forcible reminder of the spiritual and temporal rewards gained by righteous living as preferable to a Godless life that brings nought but misery to the home.

Other departments and features are above the ordinary, the unanimous verdict of its readers being: "The cleanest and best family Weekly known to them."

AMUSEMENTS

SEDALIA THEATER

"Brewster's Millions."

The Cohan & Harris comedians, headed by Robert Ober, will present the New York, London and Chicago success, "Brewster's Millions," at the Sedalia theater Sunday night, Nov. 22.

"Brewster's Millions" is a dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's novel of the same name. The play deals in the frankest manner imaginable with the improbable and the impossible, and this same frankness so takes the audience of its guard that the unreal becomes real, and the smile of bland good nature engulfs every one. Montgomery Brewster's grandfather dies and leaves him a round million. Then a western uncle passes away and wills the young man seven millions, providing he spends the first bequest within twelve months.

A list of queer conditions are tacked onto the will, but "Monty," being a good natured young chap, sees fun ahead and takes up the gauntlet.

Flints Still Popular.

The ever popular Flints at the Sedalia theater tonight and all week. Of all the entertainment companies that have come and gone in the past three decades, the Flint entertainment is probably the only one that for thirty-two years has held its place as one of the leading theatrical attractions of each season in every place that they have played. For thirty-two years Dr. Flint has propounded and demonstrated hypnotism to the public, and in all that time he has had an enviable reputation as being at the head of his own class and also among the leaders of the humorous entertainers. Since Mrs. Flint became a member of the Flint aggregation the performances have taken on a new charm and a refreshment, and her elaboration of old scenes and invention of new ones has infused new life into the entertainment that has been a leader for so long.

Hungarians Love "The Devil."

WOOD'S OPERA HOUSE.

"Peck's Bad Boy."

Here we are again! A brand new play with a very old name. Few people but what have seen or heard of that famous old play, "Peck's Bad Boy," but those who witness the performance of the above play would hardly recognize the piece as played in former seasons. The piece has been entirely re-written and brought up to date, while all the old characters have been retained and many new ones have been added. The old dialogue has been canceled and a new one has been added. New songs, new jokes, new medleys, great dancers, acrobats and comedians.

"The Devil" at Wood's Opera House, Monday, November 23.

"The Devil" has created one of the greatest records in the history of the theatrical profession—it's in the minds and thoughts of every man, woman and child, and no doubt for years to come will thrill the hearts of multitudes of people. In consequence of the fact of its being one of the greatest sensational dramatic productions ever written, millions of people are crowding to capacity the theaters in all the large cities.

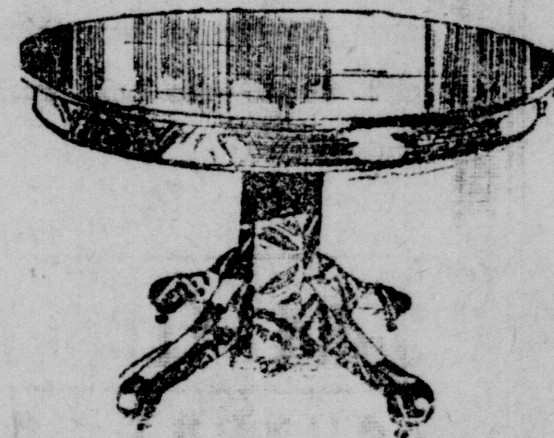

The Broadway Amusement Co. has four companies playing Chicago, New York and many other large cities. The company presenting "The Devil" here is headed by Mr. Manie Whish and Miss Mamie Gardner, who played their respective parts with the New York cast under the direction of the management's New York producer. It is therefore certain to assure you the same magnitude, de-

Bertha Kalich.

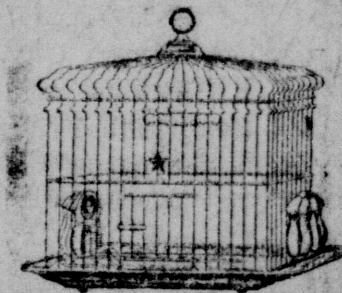

Bertha Kalich, who will come to Wood's opera house on the evening of Nov. 28, is one of the leading emotional actresses of the day, for her wonderful performance of "Marta of the Lowlands" last season, she was called a second Bernhardt by many of the well known critics of the large cities. In the title part of "Cora," her latest piece, she has the greatest opportunity of her career, and has created a veritable sensation both in Kansas City and St. Louis.

Madame Kalich is surrounded by the strongest company of players ever provided for her by Harrison Grey Fiske, and in addition, Mr. Fiske has mounted "Cora" with the most elaborate carelessness as to detail and effectiveness possible.

Lung Diseases

Beware of those occasional pains in the chest, that tickling in the throat, that hacking cough, that fluttering of the heart, that shortness of breath, that hocking and spitting, that gradual loss of weight, that loss of appetite, that nervous weakness, that unusual brightness of the eyes at times.

ONE OR ALL of these symptoms are but timely warnings that the nucleus of that most dreaded of all diseases is invading the system, and if unheeded the inevitable result is only a matter of time.

DO NOT DELAY. Delays are dangerous. Come to us in time. The Dr. Camp's Medical Co.'s Famous Inhalatorium Treatment offers you the best results obtainable in modern medical science.

It is the most scientific treatment ever devised for all diseases of the air passages. It is the most energetic method known for speedily eradicating the germs of disease from the system. 'Tis a great blood purifier and a rebuilder of the tissues and as a part of our Modern Americanized European Method it is applicable in a wide range of diseases.

We give you relief the very first treatment and do it without loading your stomach with drugs. We Cure You by the only natural way—Direct Medication by our Wonderful Inhalatorium Cabinet.

Lung Troubles

Need have no further terrors for you. You need not fear the oncoming of that most fatal of all diseases—the Great White Plague, Consumption—if you consult us in time. You can be cured more cheaply here than by a trip to the mountains. Do not think that because you have failed to get relief from the ordinary methods that we can not cure you.

We have the only Inhalatorium in this part of the state, and it has gained a wide reputation. Many come from a distance to avail themselves of this remarkable cure.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

A PASSENGER WHO WAS DREAMING DELAYED TRAINS ON THE C., B. & Q.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Oscar Kent, a wealthy stockman of Republican City, Neb., almost demoralized train schedules on the Burlington at St. Joseph last Thursday night.

He had a dispute with the conductor of the St. Louis-Denver train, which left there at 12:25 o'clock. In a fight which followed he knocked the conductor down.

The brakeman was similarly treated, and the train, which had gone a mile, was backed to the city, where officers were on hand and arrested Kent.

Another conductor was secured. The train was delayed nearly an hour, and a number of other trains were delayed in consequence.

Kent said he was asleep when the conductor aroused him. He had been dreaming he was fighting.

This Railroad Must Brace Up.

The Pennsylvania state railroad commission in the case of the Pennsylvania Clay company has directed that the Ohio River Junction Railroad company put its line of about two miles in Beaver county, Pa., into shape for operation, especially to provide its single locomotive with a cowcatcher and a headlight.

The railroad is also warned to put its tracks into condition and replace rotten ties with solid ones.

Car Shops to Be Reopened.

Arrangements are being made for the opening this month of the local "Peninsular" plant of the American Car and Foundry company in Detroit.

About 2,000 men will be put to work at first, and this number will be gradually increased to the full strength of 4,000.

The work will start with a contract for repairing 5,000 cars for the Michigan Central and other roads.

Because of "Jim Crow" Cars.

A. S. McRae, a negro lawyer of Muskogee, was arrested by a policeman and ejected from a street car because he refused to get into the "Jim Crow" section. McRae will file a suit for $20,000 against the officer making the arrest and the street car company.

McRae was one of the contesting delegates to the republican national convention in Chicago.

Station Name Changed.

Pursuant to a request from the Tahoma Mining Co., of Richmond, Mo., the Missouri Pacific railway Saturday changed the name of Raymond, Mo., a station twenty-five miles from Sedalia, on the S. W. & S. W. line, to Tahoma.

Hospital Arrivals.

Following are new arrivals at the Katy hospital:

John Fields, bridgeman, Denison, Texas.

A. B. Henderson, bridgeman, Atoka, Okla.

C. D. Landman, telegraph operator, Dallas, Texas.

Orval M. Beck, bridgeman, Mekko, Okla.

Automatic Couplers.

Sell Spendiff, a Katy fireman, is laying off on account of sickness.

J. M. Patterson, a Missouri Pacific conductor, is on the sick list.

E. B. Blaisdell, a Missouri Pacific car repairer, is ill with an attack of influenza.

A. J. Alexander, superintendent of the Missouri Pacific, returned Saturday from a business visit in Kansas City.

Owing to the failure of engine No. 1516, Missouri Pacific train No. 23, due here at 9:10 p. m., arrived over an hour late last night.

S. C. Adair, manager of the Rock Island dining station at Colorado Springs, Colo., who has been here on business, left for home Saturday afternoon.

Waldo King, a Missouri Pacific boilermaker, who fell into a pit at the shops grounds one night the past week, sustaining painful injuries, is getting along nicely.

George Neely, acting chief clerk of the Katy telegraph department, returned Friday night from Kansas City, where he was summoned as a witness in a Missouri Pacific lawsuit.

C. B. Ogle, traveling passenger agent for the C. B. & Q. railway at Kansas City, passed through here at noon Saturday, en route to points on the east end of the Missouri Pacific.

George Young, a Missouri Pacific engineer, wife and babe, returned last night from a visit at Kansas City.

Edward Wilson, a Missouri Pacific brakeman, "deadheaded" here on train No. 38 last night.

The Missouri Pacific operated a special train of four cars from Lexington to Kansas City Saturday for the convenience of the residents of Lexington who desired witnessing the football game between the Westworth Military academy and Kansas City, which game was won by the former team by a score of 30 to 0.

Conductor G. H. Gibson brought the train here at 11:45 p. m. Saturday.

MR. DICKEY PROUD OF PIN

REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN GAVE 60,000 AS A PERSONAL CONTRIBUTION.

THEY BROUGHT IN MANY A $5 BILL

All Who Contributed More Than That Sum Were Remembered by Mr. Dickey With One of the Pretty Badges.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 14.—Of the numerous devices which he employed in winning Missouri for Taft and Hadley, Republican State Chairman Dickey is, perhaps, prouder of the Taft-Sherman pin which he sent out for distribution than any other.

This was one of the most unique forms of advertising ever used by a state chairman. It was designed by Dickey, 60,000 of them were paid for by Dickey, and all were distributed under his direction.

The pin was tasteful, attractive, in appearance, and was eagerly sought by thousands after the supply had been exhausted.

The pins were Dickey's personal financial contribution to the campaign fund, and did not cost the committee one cent. Only workers were favored with these pins, and to thousands were sent copies of the following letter:

"Ten pins" from Dickey. To the 16,622 "Honey Bee" republicans of the Missouri hive. Gentlemen: Fourteen thousand five hundred and nineteen working republicans, ten state and judicial nominees, seventeen senatorial nominees and six holdover senators, thirty-two members of the state committee, 1,400 county nominees, 687 present office holders not up for reelection, 710 postmasters, 225 newspaper editors and all contributors of more than $5 to the state committee are here given an opportunity of wearing a beautiful gilt Taft pin as a badge of a "Get Busy Honey Bee" of the republican hive of Missouri.

"I want you to wear one of my workers' badges for the week preceding and on election day, and to distribute the extra ones herewith with personal compliments and best wishes for success of your 1908 state chairman.—W. S. Dickey.

MR. TAFT LAUDS MARTYRS

FORT GREEN MONUMENT DEDICATED IN BROOKLYN SATURDAY.

BRILLIANT ASSEMBLAGE PRESENT

Ranks Among the Five Greatest Structures of Its Kind in America—Erected in Memory of 12,000 Patriots.

New York, Nov. 14.—With military pomp and impressive ceremony, the prison ship martyrs' monument in Brooklyn was dedicated this afternoon. President-elect Taft delivered the oration, Secretary of War Wright, on behalf of the government, made the presentation address, and Governor Hughes, on behalf of the state, accepted the memorial.

After more than a century of agitation by individuals and organizations, bones representing approximately 15,000 martyrs of the Revolutionary war, who died on the prison ship "Jersey" and other lesser vessels in Wallabout Bay, Brooklyn, lie at last in a fittingly marked burial place, for which the government, New York state and hundreds of individuals made contributions. An imposing Doric column of granite, 270 feet high, surmounted by a funeral urn and flagstaff, rises above the tomb at Fort Greene Park, Brooklyn, and its dedication today is marked by a remarkable military parade of nearly 20,000 soldiers and marines, and memorable addresses by President-elect William H. Taft and Governor Charles E. Hughes.

The procession of naval and military organizations, said to be one of the largest in the history of Brooklyn, the tremendous outpouring of people from all over Greater New York, crowding densely the line of march, and at Fort Greene park pressed by tens of thousands, presented an inspiring spectacle. Major General Charles F. Roe, commanding the National Guard of the state, was grand marshal of the parade, which comprised four divisions—troops atached to division headquarters. First and Second brigade headquarters and the naval militia. In these were included two squadrons of cavalry, three batteries of field artillery, two organizations of the state signal corps, one field hospital corps, three coast artillery regiments, headed by General David E. Austin; the 7th, 12th, 14th, 23d, 47th, 61st and 72d Infantry regiments of the National Guard; fourth division of the G. A. R. veterans, associations and patriotic societies, squadrons of mounted police and many military and other bands.

The vicissitudes of the remains of the soldiers and sailors who died of fever and starvation, and rotted in the foul hulks of the British prison ships, long anchored in Wallabout Bay, which they polluted, have been many, and have caused more than one outburst of public indignation. It was in 1872, at a Brooklyn town meeting, that definite steps were first urged to properly bury the remains. Nothing was done, however, until 1878, when the Tammany society secured funds for a temporary wooden tomb, which was constructed on Hudson street. To this the bodies dug from the trenches along the Wallabout banks, where they had been hastily interred, were removed.

With passing years the structure

fell into decay, the bones became exposed and children played with them. Public feeling became aroused, and in 1875 the city of Brooklyn removed all that could be collected, several loads of them, to a tomb at Fort Greene park, under the stairs of the entrance, where they had been until work had begun on the present handsome memorial, which the late Stanford White designed, and which represents about $200,000. To these bones were added, four years ago, after a public service at Plymouth church, many more, filling about eight coffins, which had been unearthed in the construction of warehouses at the Brooklyn navy yards. At the remains are now encased in metallic coffins in the spacious tomb which is approached by a stately flight of several hundred steps.

The experience of the prison ships "martyrs" constitutes one of the most frightful chapters in American history. Eleven thousand soldiers and sailors died in the "Jersey" alone, a ship constructed to accommodate only 400 men, into which more than a thousand prisoners were usually crushed. Many were kept there for years. A survivor, Captain Thomas Dring, vividly depicted the scene of the horrible incarceration: "Registered and sent below, new comers suffered terribly from the intolerable heat and foul air, and when they sought the narrow air holes they found them blocked by others, who fought with all their strength for even the faintest breath of the precious air."

"Utter derangement was a common symptom of the fever that caused many deaths on board, and to increase the horror of the darkness that enshrouded us, for we were allowed no lights betwixt decks, the voice of warning would be heard: 'Take heed to yourselves; there is a madman stalking through the ship with a knife in his hand.' I sometimes found the mad corpse in the morning by whose side I laid myself down at night."

Of the bread furnished the prisoners, the Rev. Thomas Andrews wrote in his account: "I do not recollect seeing any which was not full of vermin, but eat it, worms and all, we must or starve."

The condition of the great copper in which the prisoners' meat was boiled is thus described by the memoirs of Ebenezer Fox, also a prisoner aboard the Jersey:

"The inside of the copper had become corroded to such a degree that it was lined with a coat of verdigris. The Jersey, from her size, and lying near the shore, was imbedded in the mud, and I do not recollect seeing her afloat during the whole time that I was a prisoner. All the filth which accumulated among upwards of a thousand men was daily thrown overboard and would remain there until carried away by the tide. The impurity of the water may be easily conceived and in this water our meat was boiled. Not less revolting than these scenes of cruelty and distress was the manner in which the inmate bodies of these martyred prisoners were hastily and indecorously consigned to the earth, in some cases almost before they had become cold."

The program prepared for the day, to begin at 3 p. m., included:

Music by Twenty-third regiment band, T. F. Shannon, leader, closing with the "Star-Spangled Banner," all standing.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. S. Parks Cadman.

Poem, Thomas Walsh.
Oration, Hon. William H. Taft.
Presentation of monument on behalf of the national government, by Secretary of War Luke E. Wright.

Acceptance, on behalf of the state, by Governor Charles E. Hughes.

Acceptance, on behalf of the city, by chairman of the board of aldermen, Patrick F. McGowan.

Address on behalf of Tammany society, or Columbian order, by Daniel F. Cohan, grand sachen.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY

James W. Barbee, a Telegrapher, Who Was Arrested Here.

James W. Barbee, a railway telegrapher from St. Louis, was taken to McAlester, Ok., Saturday, to answer to the charge of forgery. Barbee was arrested here by the local police Friday, and was taken to McAlester by Deputy Sheriff C. M. Haynes.

Barbee gained access to the M. K. & T. telegraph office at Denison, Texas, on Thursday night, and while no one was stationed in the office, he forged the name of C. M. Jacobs, ticket agent in this city, to a message, requesting the agent at McAlester, Ok., to furnish "A. D. Blake" with a ticket from McAlester to Sedalia and also $2 in money.

"Blake," who proved to be Barbee, alighted from the train at McAlester Thursday night and was given transportation here and also the $2 desired. The forgery was discovered in time to apprehend the forger in this city.

PRINT AFTER HIS DEATH

SEVERAL ARTICLES OF A SERIOUS NATURE WRITTEN BY SAMUEL CLEMENS.

IS BETTER KNOWN AS MARK TWAIN

Entertains Opinions on Religious and Ethical Questions That Are Not Shared by the World at Large.

(By Glenn Guernsey.)

New York, Nov. 14.—We are constantly reminded by the moralists, physicians and undertakers in our midst that death is an earthly phenomenon which plays no favorites. The pale horse is always a winner and no system has yet been found to beat the book. These observations follow the reflection that some sad day Samuel Clemens, otherwise known as Mark Twain, will go hence. It is not in a spirit of levity that this prophecy is made. There is perhaps no man in America today whose demise would cause greater grief than would that of Mark Twain. To millions of his countrymen the white haired old humorist is a friend and a comrade whose death would be keenly felt.

If some of us are yet glad that we are better risks with the life insurance companies than is Mr. Clemens, the creator of "Huckleberry Finn" has only himself to blame. He has allowed it to leak out that he has written several articles of a serious nature that are to be published only after his death. Moreover, it is promised that these expressions of the ripest thought of the old humorist will be of a nature to make the whole world "sit up and take notice." So, while Americans have only the kindest feelings for Mr. Clemens and hope he will not don his heavenly crown for many years—well, he is growing old, and our curiosity is strong.

For many years it has been known that Mr. Clemens entertains some opinions on religious and ethical questions that are not shared by the world at large. That he does not make these opinions public during his life is only an evidence of the canny sagacity that has always marked his actions. Martyrdom does not appeal to Mark Twain. "I am not here to do good—at least, not intentionally," he humorously remarked to discussing his plans. And he was only half in fun.

It is reported that some of Mark Twain's dissertations on serious matters are already completed and in the hands of his literary executor in this city.

With the season of the Manhattan opera house already in full swing and the Old Metropolitan scheduled

Dining Chairs for Thanksgiving

When the annual family gathering assembles this year to partake of your turkey and good cheer, are you sure you'll have chairs enough to go 'round without making someone uncomfortable in a chair that's not intended for use at table? Come in and look over our showing of comfortable Dining Chairs. They are of the newest designs—sturdy and strong—chairs that you'll like at once. For example, you can buy six solid oak, leather seat box frame diners, like cu., handsomely finished, golden oak, for to throw open its doors on Monday, the metropolis will soon enter upon what promises to be an unprecedented period of operatic enthusiasm. Time was, and it was not so long ago, when one opera house was quite sufficient to supply the demands for the nobler forms of musical expression. The subscriptions of the rival houses show that during the coming season both commodious buildings will be taxed to the utmost. In the near future, a third home of metropolitan grand opera may become a necessity.

None can deny that the inauguration of the Manhattan marked the beginning of a new era in New York musical circles. In old days obscure artists were considered quite good enough for the American metropolis, and the quality of grand opera served up to New Yorkers was a standing joke in European operatic circles. If an artist was not good enough for the continental capitals he hid himself off for Australia or South America. If he failed to arouse enthusiasm there, New York was a last resort for the voiceless singer.

Occasionally, in the pre-Hammer stein days, a good artist came to New York, but these visits were few and infrequent. Second rate singers, for the most part rendered third class roles in fourth class operas. And New York, not knowing any better, was content to be the operatic "goat" of the world.

Now all is changed. The best singers of the world give voice to matchless melodies from the stages of the metropolis, and if the warfare between the rival houses is long drawn out, the time may come when Europe will play second fiddle to America in the rendition of grand opera.

It is intimated that a million music lovers will attend the 200 performances to be given during the season by the two opera houses, and this fact in itself is a remarkable tribute to the development of "an ear for music" by New Yorkers. The opera is no longer a dressmakers' show, attended by bored society women for the purpose of sartorial display. The appreciation of the higher forms of music is rapidly becoming a real passion, affecting all classes, the Italian waiter as well as Milady of the Four Hundred.

THE ELECTION OF GOMEZ

WAS BITTERLY CONTESTED BY THE FRIENDS OF MARIO MENOCAL IN CUBA.

OTTEST FIGHT WAS IN SANTIAGO

American Residents of Havana Believe That the Election of Gomez Is Certain and Will Have Good Effect.

Havana, Nov. 14.—Election day dawned on the republic of Cuba this morning, and balloting is in progress throughout the island. Early reports indicate that Jose Miguel Gomez, the liberal fusion candidate for the presidency, will be elected over Mario Menocal, the conservative standard bearer, although the result may be closer than anticipated.

It appears probable that General Menocal will carry the provinces of Montanzas, Pinar del Rio and Camagucy, with a total electoral vote of thirty-seven. Havana, Santa Clara and Oriente provinces, with sixty-nine electoral votes, are claimed by the liberals.

The hottest fight is being waged in Santiago. The conservatives hope to wrest a victory from the liberals there, which would give them a chance of success, but the latter party is apparently in the lead.

The conservative party has the support of the wealthy and aristocratic class in Cuba, while the liberal organization is the popular party. General Menocal has been denounced by the liberal campaigners as a plutocrat and a friend of trusts, and this has hurt his candidacy with the laboring class.

American residents of Havana believe that the election of Gomez, which appears certain, will have a good effect and that he will be a safe and progressive executive. Menocal is favored by many Americans and Europeans, but it is feared that his election might lead to another uprising of the discontented and disgruntled "natives."

A MISSIONARY CONGRESS

FIRST HELD UNDER AUSPICES OF CATHOLIC EXTENSION SOCIETY.

SESSIONS WILL LAST FOUR DAYS

Monsignor Falconio, Apostolic Delegate at Washington, Will Be the Holy Father's Representative.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Some of the most distinguished clergymen of the Catholic church in America are assembling in Chicago today to take part in the first American Catholic missionary conference, under the auspices of the Catholic Church Extension society.

Archbishops, bishops, abbots and priests from all over the United States and Canada are included in the assemblage. Present indications are that the congress will be the largest and most important ecclesiastical gathering held in this country since the Baltimore council.

Monsignor Falconio, apostolic delegate at Washington, will act as the personal representative of the pope at the congress and will confer the holy father upon the assemblage. Many prominent laymen will take part in the deliberations of the congress.

The congress becomes possible only by virtue of the recent decree of Pope Pius X, which takes the United States and Canada out of the ranks of missionary countries, as they have hitherto been considered and places them on the footing of the distinctly Catholic nations of the world.

The aim of the congress is to take up their burden and to stir the Catholics of the United States up to their new obligations.

The complete program of the congress for tomorrow and succeeding days is as follows:

Sunday, 10:30 a. m.—Solemn procession of prelates and clergy from the cathedral college to the Holy Name cathedral.

11:00 a. m.—Solemn pontifical mass in Holy Name cathedral. Celebrant, Most Rev. Diomedo Falconio, D. D., archbishop of Larissa, apostolic delegate of his holiness Pope Pius X to the United States. Preacher, Most Rev. William H. O'Connell, D. D., archbishop of Boston.

1:30 p. m.—Luncheon, given by the archbishop of Chicago to the visiting prelates and their hosts in Chicago.

7:30 p. m.—Pontifical vespers in the principal churches, visiting prelates officiating.

Tuesday.—In the cathedral pontifical vespers, under the auspices of the Catholic Church Extension society of Canada. Sermon by the Most Rev. Fergus Patrick McEvoy, D. D., archbishop of Toronto.

Monday, 9:30 a. m.—Opening of sessions. Address of welcome by the archbishop of Chicago and state officials.

2 p. m.—Afternoon session. 7:30 p. m.—Reception to prelates and delegates by the board of governors of the Church Extension society.

Tuesday, 9:00 a. m.—Session of congress.

2:00 p. m.—Session of congress. 8:00 p. m.—General session. Addresses on foreign missions, non-Catholic missions, Indian and negro missions.

Wednesday, 9:00 a. m.—Closing session of congress.

2:00 p. m.—Meeting of the board of governors and visiting bishops to consider the action of the congress.

8:00 p. m.—Mass meeting of delegates and Catholic citizens. Most Rev. James E. Quigley, D. D., archbishop of Chicago, presiding. Addresses by Most Rev. James H. Blenk, archbishop of New Orleans, and W. Bourke Cockran, New York City.

To those afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble, backache, rheumatism, Pineu's for the Kidneys brings relief in the first dose. Hundreds of people today testify to their remarkable healing and tonic properties. 30 days' trial $1. They purify the blood. Sold by W. E. Bard Drug Co.

A Kindly Misfortune.

A young man who works in a Denver bank indorsed a check for $100 for a friend about two months ago. Later the check came back protested and the young bank employee had to make the amount good. He was very much broken up over the matter.

"Well," he said to his wife, "I'll have to make up that $100. I won't smoke another cigar until the amount I would have spent for tobacco equals the amount I have lost in this transaction."

He cut smoking out entirely. The other day the father of his friend paid back the $100. Now the young bank employee and his wife are happy. He has the $100, he's ahead about $20 on cigar money, and he has no desire to use tobacco any more.—Denver Post.

Costume for the Aged.

Though no woman ever admits that she is old in this twentieth century, still there are a few grandmothers in our midst, and though very few adopt a cap and an all-black garb, and an old-fashioned bonnet, at 60 years of age it is not wise to dress like a woman of 25. A large hat would suit the sexagenarian, especially if her hair be white, and some old ladies are daring enough to wear white cloth gowns; but they must be of a very picturesque type. Certainly white can be worn from the cradle to the grave, and is suited alike to an infant and to a graceful old lady. Gray and lilac, purple and striped black and white are to be preferred to black; silver gray is well suited to a complexion that has lost its youth, and in our days there is no special style of gown adapted to the old. Elderly people should not wear short gowns or a blouse of a different color from the skirt, nor a narrow gored skirt; soft materials are best suited to them. The trunks trimmed with silver, lace ruffles and richings cannot fail to suit them; they should abjure imitation lace, but favor real as much as possible.

CHICAGO NEWS LETTER

NOT LIKELY AN ILLINOISAN WILL BE IN CABINET OF PRESIDENT TAFT.

SOME HISTORY ALONG THIS LINE

The Loan Shark Business to Be Given a Backset by a Rival Agency That Will Loan Money at Three Per Cent.

Special to Democrat-Sentinel.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—The death of Illinois names mentioned for possible positions in the cabinet has led politicians here to comment that William H. Taft will probably be the first president since Lincoln, with two exceptions, who has not had an Illinois man in his official family. The exceptions are Hayes and Harrison, under both of whom, however, the Middle western states were well represented.

The Middle West has furnished a total of seventy-one cabinet officers, beginning with Lewis Cass, secretary of war, under Jackson, and ending with Secretary Wilson, in the present cabinet. The record in this respect is an interesting one. Seven secretaries of state have come from this region, twelve secretaries of the treasury, or half the incumbents of the office since the days of the civil war; fourteen secretaries of war, or half the number who have held the office since 1850; seventeen secretaries of the interior and every secretary of agriculture since the portfolio was established.

Of the other sections of the country, the south has furnished ninety-four members of cabinets and New England forty-six. New York holds the highest record for a single state, having sent thirty-four men to the councils of the presidents. Massachusetts comes next, with twenty-nine, followed by Pennsylvania twenty-eight; Ohio twenty-three, and Virginia twenty-one. Secretary Taft is the third head of the war department to be elected president, the others being James Monroe and U. S. Grant. Jefferson Davis was also secretary of war, under Pierce.

Six presidents have been secretary of state prior to going to the White House; they were Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, J. Q. Adams, Van Buren and Buchanan. None of the other portfolios have furnished presidents, although Roosevelt was assistant secretary of the navy and several cabinet officers have been presidential candidates.

The "loan shark" business, which has extorted hundreds of thousands of dollars of usurious interest from salaried employes in Chicago and elsewhere every year, is the latest target of attack.

As a result of the recent decision by the Illinois supreme court, declaring unconstitutional the recent statute designed to check this illegal business, a movement has been set on foot by lawyers here to frame a new measure to submit to the coming legislature and meanwhile to prosecute as many as possible of these parasites, who prey on the defenseless.

Later, it is hoped, outside co-operation will be secured and the movement may spread to other large cities where the so-called "brokers" now do a thriving business of lending money on assignments of wages—extorting frequently from the unfortunate who fall into their clutches rates of interest that run as high as 30 and 40 per cent.

A novel suggestion made by Attorney M. B. Wellington, of the Legal Aid society, is that the usurers be fought with their own weapons, in the shape of a rival loan agency, to be authorized by the legislature and to charge 3 per cent interest or some other low rate. A bill for this purpose has been framed by the society and will be presented at the coming session.

"The pawnshop reach nobody but those who own luxuries, such as watches, diamonds and such valuables," said Mr. Wellington. "A man with only his salary or household goods as security now has nobody to seek a loan from but loan sharks. In order to carry on a business which will reach these people we will need probably $250,000, but I have no doubt that that sum can be raised for the purpose."

When some future historian compiles the record of the general business revival which has begun to set in in most parts of the country as a result of the election, the west will have to be credited with the quickest response to the new conditions, for it has come to light that by a unique chance the revival in this section got a head start of the election by twenty-four hours and was well under way before the first returns were in.

After waiting until the last moment one of the biggest manufacturing concerns west of Pittsburgh declared its confidence in the election of Taft by forwarding on November 3 the largest shipment of agricultural implements ever made to one dealer in the United States.

Word to start the shipment was given by the Parlin & Orendorff company, of Canton, Ill., soon after the voting had commenced, and a special train of forty cars of plows, harrows, cultivators and planters, weighing 2,500,000 pounds, started on its way via the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and Rock Island railroads, early in the forenoon.

The departure of the train, which was hailed as a harbinger of returning prosperity by Illinois industries, was preceded by a celebration and concert by the Fifth Regiment band, I. N. G. The band accompanied the train and gave concerts at eighty points along the line, in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

The order for the implements was placed by the Penick-Hughes company, of Stamford, Texas. Renewed activity in other lines is noted here and manufacturers everywhere say they are preparing to take care of the demand which they will have to meet now that there is a clear track for prosperity once more.

The west has begun lively investment buying again, as a result of the election, as the business done by Chicago stock exchange houses shows. Chicago's transactions in stock have become of an investment rather than speculative character in recent years. The activity in the New York stock market was due to the orders from the west and western securities received their share of attention.

The principal purchases showed the hard-headed judgment of values which Chicago brokers have observed to be on the increase since the west learned its lesson in reckless stock plunging in 1901, when the boom market ended with a crash. Buyers showed a familiarity with corporation assets, liabilities and dividend records which told of careful scrutiny of reports and balance sheets.

The numbers of western stockholders in steel trust stocks have grown so large in recent months that the pressure from Chicago upon Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board, to ## Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, daily started or excited, irritable or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

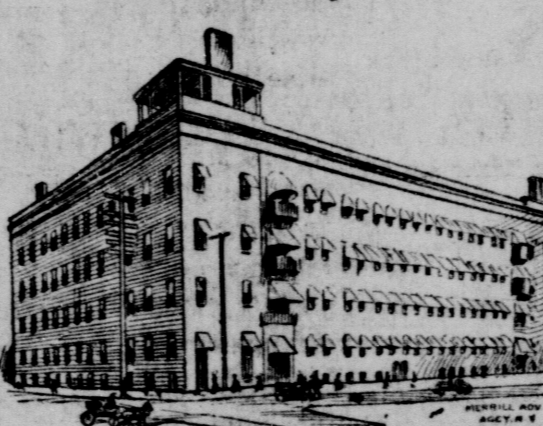

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong medicinal and sanitary effect on each of the various ailments which enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription"—it will not perform miracles; it will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult by letter, free. All correspondence is held strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. B. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Sedalia.

Most Sedalia people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Sedalia cures prove it.

Mrs. J. V. Albertson, 611 West Seventh street, Sedalia, Mo., says: "My husband had kidney trouble for several years, brought on, no doubt, by the nature of his work. He suffered from pains in his back and hips and the kidney secretions became irregular, unnatural and contained a sediment. He tried many remedies, but did not receive much relief until he procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Bard's drug store. The first box made him feel 50 per cent better and he continued until he was in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

AND ALL
KINDRED AILMENTS

THE terror with which the mere mention of Diphtheria strikes to the average mind emphasizes the vast value of a remedy that really conquers this dread scourge—for scourge it is! Hundreds of homes have seen the sunshine of joy blotted out by the withering touch of Diphtheria. This is the only remedy for Diphtheria that you can get at any drug store at any time. It is the discovery of a physician who has not lost a case of Diphtheria for twenty years.

That a Diphtheria germ cannot live in Muco-Solvent was proven by tests successfully made with Muco-Solvent by an official bacteriologist to one of the College Agricultural Experiment Stations, conducted on behalf of the U. S. Government. This marvelous remedy is highly beneficial in the cure of Croup, Coughs, Colds and all ailments resulting from inflamed or irritated conditions of the conditions of the membranous passages.

Scarlet Fever, Tonsillitis, Whooping Cough and kindred ailments yield readily to the use of Muco-Solvent.

Your druggist can supply you with Muco-Solvent. Wecannotimpressupon you too emphatically that Muco-Solvent is in no sense an ordinary patent preparation, since its use is sanctioned by the shining lights of the ethical fraternity.

Every young man should find out if there is work in the navy he enjoys doing. If he is industrious and efficient, promotion will follow with increased pay.

Navy life is interesting. The vessels of the fleet furnish a great variety of employment. The incentive to get ahead, to become smart, quick and practical, is attracting thousands of young men to the service. The opportunities to master a trade appeals to all ambitious young men. The chance to see something of the world and at the same time to save money, does not come to the average young man in civil life.

When a man is up to the navy standard of efficiency he can hold his own in life outside the navy. The navy needs mechanics as well as seamen—electricians, machinists, firemen, carpenters, stenographers, bookkeepers, good cooks, bakers, waiters, musicians, and men for the Hospital corps.

The government will train you at its own expense in one of its technical classes. Your pay begins the day you enter. The work is intended to prepare you in a short time for transfer to sea duty.

The quickest way to find out about pay, chances to save and the requirements for enlistment, is to go to the Navy Recruiting Station at Postoffice building, Kansas City, Mo. If living at a distance write the Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

The combination of healthful vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed, makes it an especially desirable and effective remedy in the treatment of sores and ulcers of every kind. Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for the trouble, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S. S. S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing vegetable properties, extracted from nature's roots, herbs and barks of the forest and fields. It has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity in the blood. When S. S. S. has purified the circulation, and strengthened and enriched it, sores and ulcers heal readily and surely, because they are no longer fed and kept open by a continual discharge into them of irritating disease-laden matter from the blood. S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, nourishing blood and makes a permanent and lasting cure. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice mailed free to all who write.

WOMEN TO HOLD COUNCIL

IT BEGINS AT UNION CITY, INDIANA, TODAY AND LASTS ALL THE WEEK.

MRS. MARY W. SWIFT, PRESIDENT

Council is Composed of About Twenty-Two Countries, of Which the United States is One of Most Important.

Union City, Ind., Nov. 14.—Many women interested in the advancement of their sex will take part in the seventh annual executive session of the National Council of Women, which will begin tomorrow and extend through next week.

The work of the National Council has been along many and varied lines, some of which are divorce reform, equal pay for equal work, education in citizenship, domestic science, social peace and international arbitration, social purity and care for defective and deformed children, equal standard of morals, tuberculosis, political equality and art and literature. Each subject is in charge of a competent standing committee who will report the progress made at this meeting.

Mrs. Mary Wood Swift is president, Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett vice president, Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frances E. Burns, recording secretary, and Mrs. M. Josie Nelson, treasurer.

The report of the special meeting of the International Council recently held in Geneva, Switzerland, will be read and delegates will be chosen to represent the society at the quinquennial meeting to be held in Toronto, Ontario, in June, next.

The International Council of Women is a body composed of about twenty-two countries, of which the United States is one. This is the first time the International council has met upon this side of the water.

The objects and general policy of the National Council of Women of the United States may be best understood, perhaps by quoting from the constitution adopted at the organization:

"We, the women of the United States, sincerely believing that the best good of our homes and nation will be advanced by our own greater unity of thought, sympathy and purpose, and that an organized movement of women will best conserve the highest good of the family and the state, do hereby unite ourselves in a confederation of workers committed to the overthrow of all forms of ignorance and injustice, and to the application of the Golden Rule to society, custom and law.

"This federation shall be called the National Council of Women of the United States.

"This council is organized in the interest of no one propaganda, and has no power over the organizations which constitute it, beyond that of suggestion and sympathy; therefore, no organization voting to enter this council shall thereby render itself liable to be interfered with in respect to its complete organic unity, independence or manner of work, or be committed to any principle or method of any other organization or to any act or utterance of the council itself."

REFORM THE CONVICTS

A MEETING OF THE AMERICAN PRISON ASSOCIATION AT RICHMOND.

DISCUSS PREVENTION OF CRIME

It Will Be on Today's Program and Experts From All Over the Country Will Relate Their Experiences.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 14.—The proper care and ultimate reformation of the convicts in the jails and prisons of the country are the subjects which will be discussed by the delegates here today to open the annual session of the American Prison association.

The inaugural meeting of the congress was held this evening, when addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Swanson and Mayor Richardson. The response on behalf of the association was by Dr. Charles R. Henderson, professor of sociology at the University of Chicago. The president's address was made by Dr. J. L. Milligan, chaplain of the Western penitentiary of Pennsylvania. The conference sermon will be preached tomorrow morning by Dr. George McDaniel.

Crime prevention and juvenile probation will be discussed tomorrow afternoon by experts from all over the country. The committee on the care of discharged prisoners will present its report Monday. The Association of Governing Boards of Penal, Reformatory and Preventive Institutions will hold its session Monday evening. The Prison Chaplain's association will meet on Tuesday and the Prison Physicians' association will hold an important session on Wednesday.

At subsequent sessions of the conference on Wednesday and Thursday reports will be presented and discussed by the committees on criminal law reform, reformatory work, uniform state laws and prison discipline.

A discussion of southern prisons, outdoor work for prisoners, convict camps and peonage will be a feature of the convention. Governor Hoke Smith is expected to add to the interest in this topic by delivering an address on "Georgia's Solution of the Convict Labor Problem." His speech is scheduled for Thursday evening, when Mrs. Mand Ballington Booth, of New York, will also speak.
